

MAY 7-13, 2017

SUNY Buffalo State Public Administration Division
Celebrates Public Service Recognition Week
Wednesday, May 10th

12:00–1:00 p.m.

Conference Registration (Campbell Student Union, Fireside Lounge – 3rd Floor)

1:00-2:30 p.m.

Panel 1: New York State's 2% Property Tax Cap

Panel 2: International Nongovernmental Organizations: Impacts and Implications

2:30-3:00 p.m. Coffee Break

3:00-4:30 p.m.

Panel 3: Government and Diversity in the New Administration

Panel 4: Nonprofit Roundtable on Fiscal Constraints and Long-term Sustainability

4:30-5:00 p.m. Welcome and Networking

5:00-7:00 p.m. Dinner followed by Keynote Speaker, Dr. Kyle Farmbry, JD, PhD., Dean of the Graduate School and Professor, School of Public Affairs and Administration, Rutgers University-Newark– “A Few Considerations on Global Diversity in an Era of Uncertainty” and presentation of Buffalo State's public administration service award.

RSVP: <https://buffalostate.wufoo.com/forms/public-service-recognition-week-conference/>

Please note there are only 70 seats available for the dinner program. RSVP today to ensure your spot!