

Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County

Office of the Mayor

A Proclamation Recognizing National Public Service Recognition Week
May 7 – 13, 2017

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels. These unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation working; and

WHEREAS, public employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and

WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS, public servants include teachers, doctors and scientists, train conductors and astronauts, nurses and safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians and social workers, and countless other occupations. Day in and day out they provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper that the Metropolitan Government go on record as recognizing the millions of public employees at the federal, state, county, and city levels.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that I, Megan Barry, Mayor of the Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County, proclaim

May 7 – 13, 2017 – National Public Service Week – in the area of the Metropolitan Government and encourage all citizens to recognize and honor the accomplishments and contributions of the millions of government employees at all levels — federal, state, county and city.

I have hereunto set my hand on this 8th day of May, 2017.
