

10 REASONS TO JOIN ASPA

KeepingCurrent Webinars

At least once a month, ASPA members receive complimentary access to our KeepingCurrent webinar program. Hear from experts in the field about best practices and trends that are changing the field. Miss one? Make the most of the archives, where you will find all of our recordings. Recent topics covered include “COVID-19—Doing the Public Good in a Time of Crisis: Perspectives from the Front Lines,” “City of Miramar’s CARE Program: Identifying Revenue and Cost Savings Initiatives” and “The Importance of Diverse Workforces in Promoting Democratic Values.”

Local Chapter Membership

ASPA Chapters provide an unparalleled opportunity for public administrators—practitioners, students and academics alike—to meet and network within their geographic area. Most Chapters host networking luncheons, workshops and seminars. Many present awards. These local groups meet regularly and keep you informed about your local public service community. No Chapter in your area? Start one! Contact us (membership@aspanet.org) for details.

Section Membership

ASPA has more than 30 subject matter Sections, ranging from finance and budgeting to crisis management to procurement. Many of them publish scholarly journals and newsletters and host specialized webinars that keep you current in the fields in which you work or study. As a member, you will learn more about a specialized field of interest. As an expert, you will share your knowledge and skills through Section-sponsored symposia, journals and more. Get involved today!
